MONDAY 23rd DECEMBER - A GREAT START TO THE CHRISTMAS HOLIDAY
=====

May we wish you a very happy Christmas and invite you to start the holiday season with a great night out at our Irish Community Christmas Reunion Social and Dance in aid of welfare at the Aylestone Centre, Aylestone Avenue, Brondesbury Park NW6 on Monday 23rd December from 8 to 11pm with admission only £1 and free admission for children and pensioners.

We expect to see all of our members, volunteers, friends and supporters at this exciting event which promises to be one of the highlights of the Christmas entertainment programme for north-west London's large Irish community.

Music for the occasion will be provided by the ever popular Mick Moloney and the Sidetrackers band, well known throughout the local Irish community, who will supply a non-stop programme of Irish, Folk, Country, Olde Time and Modern entertainment to make sure that everyone has a good time.

A number of well-known guest artistes will also appear, including local dancers, singers and musicians. Prominent local dignitaries have also been invited to attend. And a super raffle to be held on the night will have valuable prizes donated by various business organisations.

All proceeds from the evening will be used for the welfare of those who are in need or at risk within the local Irish community, and in particular will support our first-ever Irish Pensioners' Christmas Reunion Party.

Now coming into its ninth year, BIAS is a community development and welfare organisation which provides practical assistance and support to those in need or at risk within Brent's large Irish community. Since our formation in 1978 we have been able to assist thousands of people of all ages and backgrounds.

We may have helped you, or a friend or relative of yours, or a group you belong to. Now we need your support; please try and sell some tickets and come along with your family and friends on the night.

The whole evening starts at 8pm and will continue until 11pm with a licensed bar. Admission tickets are now on sale at £1 from our Information Centre at 76 Salusbury Road, Kilburn NW6 6NY (Telephone 01-624 9991 anytime). We look forward to seeing you all at our first-ever Irish Community Christmas Reunion Social and Dance on the 23rd!
