

You are invited to attend
The Annual General Meeting
of the

BRITAIN & IRELAND HUMAN RIGHTS CENTRE

Saturday 18 June, 1994

- 1.45pm Members session - Formal AGM business
2.30pm Coffee, tea, biscuits
2.45pm Public session: Introduction by John McDonnell
2.50pm Video presentation
3.20pm Sandra Hunter speaks on AIDWIC - an international coalition for the rights of the wrongly accused
3.40pm Keynote speaker:
George Johannes, African National Congress
Themes of freedom and democracy: pluralism and consent in a divided society
Discussion

"What we would like to see is that the British government and the IRA should adopt precisely the line we have taken with regard to our own internal situation. There is nothing better than opponents sitting down to resolve problems in a peaceful manner."

Nelson Mandela
Dublin, 1990

Venue: ALA
36 Old Queen St,
London SW1
nearest tube: St James's Park

RSVP: BRITAIN & IRELAND HUMAN RIGHTS CENTRE,
BM Box Rapporteur, London WCIN 3XX ☎ 071 249 3636