The raffle in the Good Intent Pub came to £38 on the Sunday night, £12 was added to this amount and it was given to the Liam Mellow's Band.

Discussion on Wicklow Association Stand at Irish Festival concerning giving out free tea etc and Tom Mc Assey stated that making money is not everything and we must remember that, Committee agreed.

15% of the takings is what is required to be given to the County's Association.

£30 was proposed for Liz as she lost £20 at the Irish Festival and had to pay for taxi's on that Sunday, it was agreed and she was given that amount.

3. Betty Conway arrived in to our meeting stating that someone said she took money out of the Association in her time as Secretary, she would not disclose who accused her but she said she had heard rumours to that effect. Jack Kennedy then stated he never at any time said she took any money, but he remembered one dance where she had money stolen from her. Tom Mc Assey and Kevin Dunne who were on the Committee with her said that she never at any time took money. No one present ever made such an accusation. She then proceeded to accuse Secretary of not being able to spell. Tommy Hanley told her she had no right in coming into our meeting uninvited, when she is not a member and being so insulting.

4. Kevin Dunne to be paid for gas bottle which cost £9.50. ✓

Pat Shaw donated £5 for food

5. We have received the Building Society Book and the £31 from the bank which was outstanding.
6. Next meeting on 1st September.
7. Meeting closed at 9.35 p.m.
