It was agreed to send him a cheque for £50 to go towards covering some of his expenses through his letter and telephone communications here and in Ireland. We wish him the best of luck for the future. Secretary to send off the cheque and enclose a letter of thanks.

John Fitzpatrick thanked the present Committee for their work throughout the year, also Ned and Lill for their support at the Irish Festival. John stated that when you take a position on a Committee you should give it 100% but with so many members wishing to stand down, for their own reasons, and no new recruits, all anyone can do is their best.
