

Crawley Fleadh Week 2004

Celebrating Irish Culture in England's South East

Saturday 21st August ADMIT 1 "Come sit by my fire" An evening of music song dance and poetry with Arthur Donal Cox speaking the words of the great poets of Ireland illuminated by the magical music of Siansa and O'Brien School of Dancing. Friary Hall, Haslett Ave West. Doors open 7.30 for 8.00pm commencement. £7.00 sponsored by Bar & Raffle CAPPAGH GROUP OF COMPANIES LTD	Thursday 26th August ADMIT 1 The Problem in Northern Ireland 1968 to the Present Historical Talk as Jonathan Moore looks at the growth of violence in the 1960's and 1970's and its replacement by peace. Emerald Club, Southgate Avenue. From 7.30-Late. £3.00 Bar
Monday 23rd August ADMIT 1 Ceili & set dance workshop With Thomas O Dea. Emerald Club, Southgate Avenue. From 8.00-11.00pm. £3.00 Bar	Friday 27th August ADMIT 1 Irish Comedy Night With Paddy Lennox, Eddie Naessens and Mary Burke. Emerald Club, Southgate Avenue From 8.30-11.30pm £5.00 Bar & Extension
Tuesday 24th August ADMIT 1 London Irish Fictions Tony Murray searches via autobiography and fiction the experiences of Irish writers in London such as JM O'Neill, Edna O' Brien & John B Keane. Emerald Club, Southgate Avenue. From 7.30-Late. £3.00 Bar	Saturday 28th August ADMIT 1 Irish Theatre's Johnjo by Tom O'Brien Compelling drama tells the heartbreaking story of Johnjo McGrath forced to go on the run from his Irish hillside farm at an early age, eventually ending up in London where he begins a lifelong association with 'the lump'. From building motorways, and living in camps 'you wouldn't keep a decent dog in' he meets men like Elephant John 'who dog you from morning to night'. Having not been back in more than 30 years he grows bitter and disillusioned with the harshness of his life but nevertheless hangs on to a few sparks of defiance. The Railway Club, Three Bridges. From 8.30- 11.00pm £5.00 Bar & Extension
Wednesday 25th August ADMIT 1 Cookery Evening With Fred Tobin, Gold Star Chef. St Wilfrid's School, Old Horsham Rd. From 7.00- 10.30pm Take away with a difference £3.00	Sunday 29th August ADMIT 1 Festival Dance Music by Mary Rose and her Band. The Railway Club, Three Bridges. From 8.30-11.45pm £7.00 Bar & Extension

For more information phone 01293 513189 / 416301

Book on line at www.celtic-irish.co.uk www.crawlevirishfestival.co.uk