

Irish History Month – Workers before, during and after the 1916 Easter Rising

TODAY 6PM – TM1-47

The Irish Studies Centre and the Working Lives Research Institute (WLRI) are pleased to invite you to a seminar we are co-hosting on the eve of the 99th Anniversary of the 1916 Easter Rising, as part of Irish History Month.

Date: Wednesday 22nd April

Free and open to all

Time: 6pm to 8pm

London Metropolitan University, 166-
London N7 8DB

220 Holloway Road

Room: TM1-47 (Tower Building).

Speakers:

1. Marian Larragy from the London Irish Feminist Network will speak on the role of the workers, especially, the Irish Women's Union led by Rosie Hackett.
2. Geoff Bell, a historian, will speak on the role of Irish workers in Britain who were impacted by the 1916 Easter Rising.

Hosted by the Irish Studies Centre and the Working Lives Research Institute.