The 23rd February marks the beginning of 'Feile na nGael' (Festival of the Irish) - a five week celebration of art and culture. The London Irish Festival of the Arts (L.I.F.A.) has come together with local boroughs and community groups to provide the most ambitious programme of events yet seen in London to reflect our culture; both traditional and contemporary, and designed to appeal to all tastes and ages.

Major attractions organised by L.I.F.A. include 'The Dubliners', the film premiere of 'Pigs', and the premieres of the Irish Company's 'I do like to be' by Shane Connaughton, and Claddagh Theatre's 'I do not like thee Dr. Fell'
