

Connolly Association

Annual Terence MacSwiney Memorial Lecture

Camden Town Hall
Judd Street, St. Pancras, London WC1
Saturday 28th October
1.00pm-3.30pm

Formal opening
Councillor Heather Johnston Mayor of Camden

Chair
Kate Foley Labour Party Irish Society

Cathal Crumley Mayor of Derry
First Sinn Fein councillor to be made Mayor of a Six County city
A vision of a new Ireland

Special showing of "The Dawn"
A 1930s Irish made film about the War of Independence.

Please turn over for further details

Connolly Association

Terence MacSwiney
Annual Memorial Lecture

Camden Town Hall
Judd Street, St Pancras, London WC1

Saturday 28th October 2000
1.00pm-3.30pm

Chair
Kate Foley Labour Party Irish Society

Formal opening
Councillor Heather Johnston, Mayor of Camden

Bob Pitt
Camden Trades Union Council

Camden Calthorpe Project's Bengali Music Group
A song in honour of Indian freedom fighter Jatindra Nath Das performed in celebration of links between the Irish and Indian freedom movements.
J.N. Das died after 63 days on hunger strike in 1929 while demanding political prisoner status.

Nick Mullen Ex-POW

Councillor Cathal Crumley Mayor of Derry
A vision of a new Ireland

Socialist Film Co-Operative showing of a video of "The Dawn"

The "Dawn" was the first Irish "talkie" film and is about the War of Independence. The film was produced in 1936 using IRA veterans to re-enact important battles of the War.

Connolly Association 244 Grays Inn road, London WC1X 8JR