

Connolly Association, London Branch

Presents a series of lectures and meetings at the Calthorpe Arms, 252 Grays Inn Road, London WC1X (except for December 17th). All meetings will commence at 7.30pm.

Wed. November 26th. Irish political Prisoners and the Peace Process, Enda Finlay, General Secretary of the Connolly Association will be examining the key role of Irish political prisoners in the peace process.

Thur. December 17th. Big Jim Larkin: Organising the Un-Organisable, Trade union activist, Charlie Cunningham will be discussing the life and politics of Jim Larkin, and will look at the trade union movement in Ireland and Britain since Larkin's death fifty years ago. THIS MEETING AT CONWAY HALL

Wed. January 28th. 1998 A new year for Irish politics or the same old rhetoric, speaker to be confirmed.

Wed. February 25th. Human Rights in the north of Ireland, Human rights activist, Michael Crowley, will look at the key issues affecting human rights in the north of Ireland.

Wed. March 25th. The United Irishmen and the Rights of Man, the United Irishmen in the context of European and American history, speaker, Sally Richardson.

Wed, April 29th. James Connolly: socialism and nationalism, James Connolly's greatest legacy. Did Connolly forsake socialism for nationalism? speaker, Jim Redmond.

Details for all meetings, 0171 739 1633/916 6182/833 3022