

Connolly Association & Tower Hamlets Trades Union Council

Saturday 8th of May 1999

1.00pm - 5.30pm

1998 Good Friday Agreement Discussion Meeting

Is the war over? Does the Belfast Agreement offer a way forward in Ireland?

What about Decommissioning?

Will the Agreement founder on the Drumcree confrontation?

Blackshirts at Cable Street, London, 1936, & Orange Order at Garvaghy Road, Portadown 1999
- parallel examples of supremacist marches?

St. Margaret's House Settlement

21 Old Ford Road,

Bethnal Green, London E2

Chair: Phil Edwards Tower Hamlets TU Council

Jim McDonnell MP

Chair, All-Party
Irish Westminster
Parliamentary Group

Billy Robinson

Director, Counteract Belfast ICTU sponsored anti-intimidation unit.

Brendan MacCionnaith

Garvaghy Road
Residents Coalition

Jimmy Nolan

Liverpool Port
Joint Shop Stewards
Committee

Brenda Callaghan

Belfast Trades Union Council

Martin McGovern

Sinn Féin Representative in Britain

Pat Reynolds

Irish in Britain
Representation Group

Peter Berrisford Ellis

Author/Historian.

Angie Birthill

Irish Womens Group London

Travel directions: Central Line to Bethnal Green; 3 minutes walk from tube station past the Museum of Childhood & adjacent to York Hall Swimming Baths. Buses: Nos 8, 106, 253, & D6 to Bethnal Green Tube Station.

Tower Hamlets Trade Union Council & Connolly Association
Davenant Centre, 179-181 Whitechapel High Street, London E1 1DW
Tel: 0171 833 3022. 11.00am-4.00pm Mon-Fri. & Tel & Fax 0171 916 6172.