

8th December, 1938

Dear Mr Hickey,

I am enclosing a list of names which I would like you to circularise for next Sunday's meeting. I know several others but unfortunately I have not got their addresses.

I expect that I will have the pleasure of seeing you this evening at the High Commissioner's Office.

Kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,

M. Molony