5th Jan 1939.

Dear Tom,

Thanks for your letter and the enclosure which I am returning. I have another which I am sending on to you to write to. He is a Captain McCullagh, whom I met in Rome recently. He is a newspaper correspondent, free-lance, and is a friend of Desmond Ryan. The address is,

c/o Lt.Comm. MacLoughlin R.N.

I received your forms and I shall be busy this week-end getting the new members.

With best wishes for the new year,

Yours sincerely,

J. J. Hong.
