W.S. Armour, Esq.,

Dear Mr. Armour,

I am forwarding a copy of the draft of the appeal which I submitted at Monday's meeting. I realise that there is plenty of scope for improvement in the introductory part and would welcome your suggestions.

I shall attempt to cover section 4 and leave sections 2 & 3 to Mr. Ryan and yourself. I wonder if I could have by Monday morning next your copy for whichever section you decide to undertake after consultation with Mr. Ryan, so that I can have the proofs ready for our next meeting. The number of words required is approximately 300.

What I have in mind is a folder with four pages of printed matter, the front outside cover bearing the name of the organisation in English and Gaelic, and the names of the officers and members of the Council, while the back cover would contain the map of Ireland, the name of the organisation and some suitable slogan.

Yours sincerely,

Hon. Secretary of the Anti-Partition of Ireland League.
