I give you herewith particulars of the meeting at Kings College at which you have agreed to speak on March 14th. When I get a reply from Branney I shall be able to tell you how to get there etc. or perhaps you may be willing to meet Branney and myself beforehand and have a talk about it.

The meeting is being held under the auspices of the Peace Council, King's College, London, W.C.2

The date is Tuesday March 14th.

Lunch at 12.45 p.m.

Address at 1.20 p.m.

I shall get in touch with Branney next week and write you again. Am I right in saying the title of your address is "Partition - A menace to British Liberty" - ?
