

May 3rd. 1939

Brian Hannigan, Esq.,

Dear Brian,

This process of conscripting London-Irish wealth entails a signature to yet another document. Our account at the bank is in the joint names of the two Hon-Treasurers and myself and we have to instruct the bank to credit that account with any cheques made payable to the Anti-Partition of Ireland League.

Yours sincerely,

Hon. Secretary of the Anti-Partition of Ireland League.