

J. C. Barry - Walsh. Esq.

2. VI. 39.

Dear Mr Barry - Walsh;

Thank you for your letter of May 30th. I regret I have delayed in answering you, but hope you will understand that some days are more full than others!

Regarding your suggestion that I should call at your office, on June 6th between 5-30 pm. ~~and~~ I am afraid that time is rather difficult just now, as I am not yet returning to my own place in the evenings, as I at first arranged.

I am free alternate days from 2.4.02, one afternoon, 11-30, to 1-30 pm on the other days, and this would mean a rush to get there, and return on time, but perhaps you would understand this?

Or could I perhaps suggest that I ask permission from my patients to have an interview here? I'm afraid this would mean a long journey to you, and of course my time would be short, but, at least we could have a talk in private, even for so short a time!

Will you kindly let me know what you think of this suggestion, then I will get permission to see you, or, get extra time to call at your office, but this is not so convenient to get just now.

Anyhow, if you were coming to Hampstead, I could tell you exactly, just how to find the house where I am nursing.

So sorry not to have been free to arrange a proper time!

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

M. O'Donnell
