

5th June, 1939.

Dear Mr. Barry-Walsh,

As I mentioned on the telephone this afternoon, I have sent a rough draft of a report on his speech to Mr. Armour, asking him for permission to submit it for publication to the Irish Papers. At the same time I asked him to correct, amend or delete where necessary.

I enclose a very bad carbon copy of Mr. Armour's speech for your information. At the same time I enclose a rough draft of your speech and that of Mr. Hickey. Please amend or delete and return to me.

I will make a final hotch potch (!) when everyone has made their corrections and will then send you a copy. I think I will merely in the final draft say that Miss McDermott also spoke, and I may cut down the other speeches also because I don't think the papers will publish so much.

Mr. Donoughue has promised to hand the final report on to the Press.

When I have a few minutes to spare I will type out the Minutes and send you a copy.

Yours sincerely,

J. McKenna
