A Chara,

With reference to the Manchester meeting on Sunday first, the Scottish representatives will again be Mr. Flynn and myself. We leave Glasgow on Saturday 11.25.p.m. arriving Manchester round about 5.30.a.m. This is our only train.

We will not be able to leave Manchester until after 1.a.m. Monday, so we shall be available for a prolonged meeting. The agenda is certainly extensive and covers main points necessary in initial stages of the movement.

I thank you for copy of resolution which was passed at your meeting. I do hope it creates the desired impression in the proper quarters. Hoping to see you on Sunday first,

Is mise, le meas mor,

P.D. Carey Jr.
Hon. Secretary,

(Glasgow Area)
