A Chara,

In reply to your query regarding postponement of National Executive Conference I may state from the Scottish viewpoint that this would suit us admirably.

Recent events in Glasgow have made it impossible for us to even try to make headway at the moment. Our local financial appeal is held up and at the moment we could only allow one delegate to travel.

Therefore any postponement, longer if possible will have our approval and with regard to the agreement of remuneration,

I think in this case we could agree to any emergency decision reached by yourselves on this point.

I thank you for prompt reply to my recent letter and hope to have brighter news for you soon.

Mise, do cara,

Patrick D. Carey J.
General Secretary.
