A Chara,

re: CONFERENCE

I have to acknowledge receipt of your telegrams of the 22nd and 23rd instant, and also your letter dated the 23rd instant, and to confirm having wired you as under:-

"WILL ATTEND. TRAVELLING SUNDAY".

I regret very much any inconvenience that may have been caused as a result of my delay in replying to your first telegram; the delay was unavoidable owing to difficulties I had in making contact with my chairman, who was out of town, and also the fact that I had already arranged for a meeting of my executive for this week end when I intended submitting your letter of the 15th inst, for consideration.

Arrangements for the conference proceeded more rapidly than I had anticipated, otherwise I might have be better prepared. In addition I was fully occupied during the past fortnight with organizing arrangements for our Annual St. Patricks Day demonstration which took place last Sunday, and which was, I am pleased to say, a great success.

With regard to your arrangements for lunch at the Russell Hotel, on Sunday, I rather think we will be late. We leave here at 9. 20 a.m and will arrive Euston about 2.p.m. We will, in any case, proceed to the Hotel on arrival, but I suggest you should not delay lunch on our account if you have already made definite arrangements for 1.30.

Is mise,
 le meas,

Thomas Moran
 RUNAIDHE.

J.O. Barry-Walsh Esq, B.L.,

P.S. My chairman was not available for consultation until late last night, hence delay in writing.
