A Chara,

I have to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated the third instant, and am grateful to you for informing me, in advance, of the Dublin Committee's decision regarding the grant applied for. So far I have not yet heard from Mr Davin, and I await a further letter from you on the matter. I received, yesterday, a large quantity of copies "Dev's" speech in the Seanad, on Partition, but no letter of advice accompanied them.

As soon as the grant is through we will go ahead, and if possible I might run down to London and have a chat with you on matters concerning organizing.

I heartily reciprocate your good wishes.

Mise, le meas mór,

Thomas Moran

RUNAIDHE.
