B.J. Earley Esq.

Joint Hon. Treasurers

Provisional National Executive,

Anti-Partition of Ireland League.

A Chara,

Mr. T. Moran has doubtless explained to you that an account for the National Provisional Executive is being opened with the National Bank in the joint names of the Hon. Treasurers and the Hon. Secretary. For purposes of this account, as you will understand, the bank has to be supplied with copies of our respective signatures and I am forwarding the relevant documents for your attention. You will note that in both cases the copy of your signature immediately precedes that of mine. I am also enclosing for your signature a cheque (amount still to be filled in) payable by way of advance on salary to the Organiser in the Liverpool Zone. The amount of this payment will be decided by the London Officers of the Executive to-morrow in the light of suggestions from Liverpool and Manchester as to the rates of remuneration for the
