

June 29th 1939

Mr. T. Moran,

A Chara,

Mr. Hickey has asked me to reply to your letter of the 27th and your card of the 28th inst. An event has taken place in his family which keeps him away from the office at present. He asked me to tell you that he would be delighted to meet you on Saturday next and has left it to me to fix an appointment. May I suggest Strand Palace Hotel? I shall be waiting there for you from 4.45 onwards. In case I may be a little late myself (as I have to go out to the suburbs first) please wait for me inside the doors. I shall arrange for Mr. Fitzgerald to meet you later. I imagine that there are many things which we two could discuss between ourselves first.

Is mise le meas,

Organising Secretary.
