

British Association for Irish Studies

BAIS BULLETIN - FEBRUARY 1991

SUBSCRIPTIONS

The subscription year begins on 1 July. Our records show that you are in arrears with your subscription. If you believe that this is an error, please contact us. Otherwise please save the Association time and expense by renewing your subscription promptly.

IRISH LITERARY SUPPLEMENT

There was a delay in the distribution of the current number of the ILS arising from the move of office. The ILS will be distributed shortly. It will only be sent to those whose subscriptions are up to date.

TWO WAYS TO HELP THE ASSOCIATION

1 CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP: At the moment, the Association has 16 corporate members. You can help by encouraging your institution to take out corporate membership.

2 DISTRIBUTION OF PUBLISHERS' PROMOTIONAL MATERIAL/
ADVERTISING: Many of the Association's members are about to publish books, or will do so in the near future. Why not mention to your publisher the benefit of distributing promotional material through BAIS or through an advertisement in the BAIS Newsletter. The rates are as follows:

Distribution of materials such as fliers costs £100, if included in a regular BAIS mailing. This will give access to 300+ members of BAIS. For a special mailing, the cost of postage, packing and labour would form an extra element.

The cost of an advertisement in the Newsletter is:

Full page	£100
Half page	£ 50
Quarter page	£ 25

Camera ready copy is requested.

EVENTS

THE HOPKINS SOCIETY OF IRELAND - ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL - Monasterevin, co. Kildare, Republic of Ireland, 4-7 July 1991 - lectures, exhibitions, guided tour, poetry reading, music, discussions, workshop, seminar. G M Hopkins described Monasterevin as "one of the props and struts of my existence". Details: The Hopkins Society of Ireland, Annual International Summer School, Monasterevin, Kildare, Republic of Ireland - Tel: 045-25601.

LECTURE SERIES - Members may be glad to learn that the BAIS lecture series (hosted by the Institute of Irish Studies, Liverpool University, in 1989, and by The John Rylands University Library of Manchester in 1990) have borne fruit. In both places lecture series have been continued. A series on "Irish Art and Culture" under the auspices of the Institute of Irish Studies, takes place in Liverpool between 7 February and 28 March, in association with a series of exhibitions of Irish art taking place in the city. Details from the Institute of Irish Studies on 051-794 3830. A series of six evening lectures entitled "Ireland - Invasion and Response" - will run from 25 April to 30 May. These will be run by the Extra-Mural Department of Manchester University, from which further information/details of enrolment can be obtained on 061-275 3273.

EWROSGOL CYMRU, Dwyfor, Wales, 3-7 April 1991 - FESTIVAL OF THE LESSER USED LANGUAGES OF EUROPE (31 of them!). Details: Gareth James, Gweinyddwr Ewrosgol/Ewrosgol Administrator, Nant Gwrtheyrn, Pwllheli, Gwynedd LL53 6PA - Tel/Fax (0)75 885 334.

In connection with CELTICA 1991 - an exhibition THE CELTS IN WALES, in the Main Building, National Museum of Wales, Cathays Park, Cardiff, 2 May - 29 September. There will also be a series of lectures at various centres throughout the year, including Miranda Green on "The Gods of the Celts" and Pronsias Maccana on "The Oral Tradition - Ireland". Details: The Director, Celtica 1991, Wales Tourist Board, Brunel House, 2 Fitzalan Road, Cardiff CF2 1UY.

PUBLICATIONS

Three new titles in the PNL Occasional Paper Series: Ellen Hazelkorn, Irish Immigrants Today: a socio-economic profile of contemporary Irish emigrants and immigrants in the UK; Lara Marks, Working Wives and Working Mothers: a comparative study of Irish and eastern European Jewish married women's work and motherhood in East London, 1870-1914; Christopher Bennett, The Housing of the Irish in London (updated and revised edition). All titles £5, from European Languages Services, Polytechnic of North London, Prince of Wales Road, London NW5 3LB.

Austen Morgan, Labour and Partition: the Belfast working class, 1905-23 - to be published by Pluto Press in March.

BAIS, 310 The Chandlery, 50 Westminster Bridge Road, London SE1 7QY - Tel: 071-721 7579 Fax: 071-721 7409