

LONDON WICKLOW ASSOCIATION

1. The Association shall be called the London Wicklow Association, and shall adhere to the aims as set out in its Constitution.
 - a) To develop a close and friendly relationship between all Wicklow Men and Women in the London area, and if possible, elsewhere in Great Britain.
 - b) To uphold the traditions of the county of Wicklow in all its cultural and social aspects.
 - c) To render assistance where necessary to fellow county men and women, members and non-members.
 - d) The Association is non-sectarian and non-political.
2. Membership shall be open to people of Wicklow birth or descent, and their husbands and wives and families.
3. The Association shall elect a Committee consisting of President, V/President, Chairman, V/Chairman, Hon. Treasurer, Hon. Secretary, Registra, and not more than twelve other members annually. The Committee shall have the power to co-op further members to the number of three, if considered necessary. All vacancies to be filled by co-option.
4. The Committee must meet on the first Tuesday of each month, and anyone failing to attend three consecutive meetings shall be replaced at the discretion of the Committee unless a reasonable explanation of absence is obtained.
5. Eight members of the Committee shall be deemed a quorum.
6. The Committee shall reserve the right to refuse an application for membership, or to expel or exclude from the Association any member who misbehaves in any way or who refuses to conform to the Associations's rules.
7. A special meeting of the Association may be held any time at the request of the Committee. Five days notice of such meetings must be sent to all members.
8. An extraordinary General Meeting of the Association may be held at any time at the written request of twenty members of the Association. Five days notice must be sent to all members, and only the business for which the meeting is called shall be discussed at such meetings.
9. The A.G.M. shall be held prior to the last Sunday of April each year, and notification must be sent to all members. The Hon. Secretary's report and the balance sheet shall be read at the meeting. Only those who were members prior to 27th February are entitled to vote.
10. The financial year ends 31st March.
11. All motions, amendments, or alterations to these rules shall be forwarded to the Secretary twentyone days before the A.G.M. Any alteration must have in its favour a majority of those present.

These rules cancel all previous rules prior to April 1987.
