

Manchester Irish Festival 2005

National Irish Studies Conference

Saturday 12th March 2005

Manchester Town Hall

9.30 am.- 4.00 pm.

Speakers

Frank Nugent - "South Arís" - His re-enactment of Shackleton's Epic Voyage across the Southern Ocean.

Joe Bradley – Celtic Mind – The history of the Irish dimension of Celtic football club.

David McGuinness – St. Patrick and his Legacy: Early Irish Christianity and the Demise of Paganism.

Fergus O Connor – Derek Hill and the painters of Tory Island, Donegal.

Eamonn Coleman – The works of Louis McNiece

Paula Millward – Constance Markievicz – a people's Countess?

This is a community, not for profit, event and the £10 fee covers speakers expenses, equipment, publicity and teas/coffee

Booking; Walter Cassin 0161 445 9327
or e-mail j.flynn@manchester.gov.uk

Manchester Irish Education Group (CHARITY NO 1000876)