

AN INTRODUCTION TO IRISH STUDIES

A 14-week programme of lectures and seminars which will provide an introduction to some of the major elements of Irish Studies at the Polytechnic of North London.

P-N-L

THE POLYTECHNIC OF NORTH LONDON

THE PROGRAMME

Introduction and Overview of the Course

1. Migration/The Irish in Britain

Irish migration since the Famine

The Irish Community in Britain: Class; Religion; Nationalism.

Researching the Irish in London.

A Question of Identity.

2 The History and Contemporary Context of Irish Society

The Irish Landscape.

The Irish Quest for Self-Government.

Case-Study: The Irish Land War.

Party Politics in Modern Ireland.

Irish Political Institutions.

3 Literature, Media and Politics

Sean O'Casey and Anne Devlin.

Yeats and Heaney.

Cal.

News Coverage.

It is hoped that a half-degree in Irish Studies will commence in October 1988. This foundation programme can be taken as a preparation for the degree or as a short course complete in itself.

INFORMATION

Time

Wednesdays: 6 p.m.-9 p.m.

17 February 1988-8 June 1988

Venue

Marlborough Building,
383 Holloway Road,
London, N7 0RN

(opposite Marks & Spencers)

Nearest tube: Holloway Road

Cost

£33, or £3 for unwaged ILEA residents.

APPLICATION FORM

Please detach this form and return to:

Irish Studies Centre,
Marlborough Building,
383 Holloway Road,
London, N7 0RN

Name

Address

.....

.....

.....

Telephone No.

Fee: Please send a cheque or postal order made payable to:
The Polytechnic of North London
with this application form.

Please return as soon as possible so that we can send your registration details and book you a place on the course.

Interested in finding out more about Irish Studies?

This course is open to everyone with an interest in Irish Studies.

If you would like more information about this course please contact:

Mary Hickman at the Irish Studies Centre, PNL
(Telephone 01-607 2789 ext. 2337)

or

Telephone the ACE Office (Access and Continuing Education) on the direct line 01-700 4880.