Apologies: Tommy Dunne, (Chairman) Maura Fitzsimmons and Mary Kenny.

Representative from Residents Association (Rbt. Buchanan) attended to give over report. Residents worried about the children, problem of the long holidays and nuisance it caused. He asked Fr. Denis what was the aerial on the roof top, neighbours curious, also asked about rumours of sell out of Centre. Fr. told him a letter was been circulated re meeting of tenants to discuss the problem, also explained aerial.

Matters arising: None.

Welfare Report:

Fr. Denis he regretted having to tell the committee that due to financial circumstances a Social Worker had to be given notice. Susan McDonnell being the last to be employed would be given one month's notice. Fr. paid tribute to Susan and said she was a very good worker. He said people were not coming to the Centre to look for work. Interviews were down, repeat callers being reduced. Busy some days approximately 15 calling other days about 30/35.

Hostel Report:

Nothing to report. New building progressing. Tom Mangan stated that Douglas Hyde Lounge filthy dirty and appearance from outside dismal.

Director's Report:

Fr. Cormican said that it was nice to see profit on the financial report. Franchise of Bars and Catering, Interviews were held with Oliver Clancy, Saxon Inns and Grosvenor Rooms.

Irish Festival:

He thanked all the people who helped, the weather and numbers were disappointing.

Social Committee:

Weekend not taking money although the bands were good.

Any Other Business:

There was no other business and meeting concluded.

Date of next meeting. A.G.M. on the 10th September 1992.
