

THE HISTORY OF THE IRISH IN BRITAIN : A BIBLIOGRAPHY

THE HISTORY OF THE IRISH IN BRITAIN: A BIBLIOGRAPHY

AN IMPORTANT NEW SOURCE AND REFERENCE BOOK FOR IRISH STUDIES.

The History of the Irish in Britain: A Bibliography.

ISBN 0 9510945 0 5

Containing over 700 references, this bibliography, the first publication from the Irish in Britain History Centre, should be of special value to all those interested in the history of the Irish in Britain and Irish studies in general. It will also be useful to students and teachers working in the fields of sociology, demography, historical geography, urban growth, economics and politics. The addition of a subject and also a chronological index means that references in the bibliography may be easily and efficiently consulted. Subjects covered in the index include regional studies, images of the Irish, Irish women and emigration, railway building, education, the catholic church, Irish nationalism, orangeism and the labour movement.

This first edition is to be welcomed therefore by all those with interests in the above areas.

BIBLIOGRAPHY compiled and researched by: MAUREEN HARTIGAN edited by: MARY J. HICKMAN production by: ANGELA LYNCH

The price of the bibliography is only £2.50 (+30p. p&p.)
IR£3.00 (inc. p&p.)
US.$6.00 (inc. p&p.)

CHEQUES AND POSTAL ORDERS SHOULD BE MADE PAYABLE TO:
THE IRISH IN BRITAIN HISTORY GROUP.

Copies may be ordered by completion of the slip below from the Irish in Britain History Centre, 76-82, Salusbury Road, London NW6 6NY. (Tel. 01-624-7438)

Name: _____

Address: _____

No. of copies: _____