IRISH IN BRITAIN REPRESENTATION GROUP

IN ASSOCIATION WITH SOAR VALLEY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

One Day Conference on Saturday 11th February 1984 on

"IRISH DIMENSIONS IN BRITISH EDUCATION"

This Conference is aimed at parents, teachers, first and second generation Irish people, all Irish community organisations and all those interested in:

- Multi-Cultural issues and developments,
- Curriculum Development in Junior and Secondary Schools,
- Adult and Community provision.

It is hoped that the Conference will outline current issues, discuss developments and indicate avenues for progress.

The speakers will be:

Tom Arkell Senior Lecturer in Arts Education, Warwick University and the EEC Irish Studies Project.

Ivan Gibbons Ed. of 'Irish Studies in Britain' and Community Education worker at Hammersmith and North Kensington Institute of Adult Education.

Tim Ottevanger Multi-Cultural Adviser for Leics. L.E.A.

Barry Dufour Lecturer in Education and Course Director in Multi-Cultural Education at the School of Education, Leicester University.

Chairperson: Nessan Danaher, IBRG Education Officer, Head of History, Soar Valley Community College and Co-ordinator of Leicester Irish Studies Course.

DATE: Saturday 11th February 1984.

TIMES: 9.30 am - 5.30 pm (see p.2 for detailed timetable).

VENUE: Soar Valley Community College.

FEE: £4.00. This covers registration, coffee on arrival and during a.m. and p.m. breaks, and a three course hot lunch.

Cheques should be sent, together with tear-off slip, to

Mr. E. Sylt, Head of Community Education, Soar Valley Community College, Gleneagles Avenue, Leicester and should be made payable to 'Soar Valley Association'.

It is hoped that a display of printed and audio-visual resources will be mounted in conjunction with publishers materials from both Ireland and the U.K.

Ample parking facilities available. Please see timetable and reply slip on sheet attached.
