BIAS is a community development and welfare agency set up in 1978. It provides a range of advice, information and specialist support services to the Irish community in Brent and Harrow primarily, and London generally.

Transition to Old Age Project

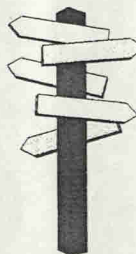

BIAS Transition to Old Age Project was developed in July 1999 and aims to provide a holistic and culturally sensitive service to 40-65 year old Irish people in Brent.

The Service is a 3 year Project funded by the Brent and Harrow Health Authority.

BIAS Transition to Old Age Project can offer the following culturally sensitive support:

- Health / Social Care Needs:- individual support and advocacy.
- Housing Issues:- advice and information on housing options.
- Information:- housing options, welfare benefits, specialist support services.
- Advocacy / Befriending
- Referral to specialist services where appropriate.

- Form filling:- housing registration, benefits, passport applications.

BIAS is currently participating in monitoring the needs of Irish people and with your consent you may be asked some simple questions for this purpose.
