

CHAIRPEOPLE'S REPORT

Since the last executive most of our activities involved the usual liaison with official and non-official organisations and individuals. This activity is primarily aimed at raising the profile of the Association which is a key element in the lengthy process of fundraising, and without which the fundraising exercise would be nearly impossible.

We met with the following:

- i Members of the Irish Embassy
- ii Head of Irish Department of Foreign Affairs in Dublin
(short verbal report will be given)
- iii Head of the Taoiseach's department
- iv Johnson Matthey
- v our patrons
- vi N.Ireland Office F.C.O., D.E.S., D.E.N.I.
- vii Representative of the Cabinet Office, Irish Department of Education
- viii Assorted TD's and MP's
- ix Members of the Ireland Fund and Co-operation North.

R.DUDLEY EDWARDS

J.O'HARA