Dear Tom,

I hope you

got my telegram which explained why I am unable to leave the country in time to attend the committee meeting.

As a matter of fact

I have now been in bed
since Christmas evening with this cursed flu
so that my holiday is completely spoiled.

I'm sure I caused annoyance by not turning up on Friday last to sign the letters concerning the meeting tonight but it slipped my mind in the rush & hurry to get away.
I expect I shall be over in less than a week if I take enough hot whiskey

in the meantime.

Regards,

Barry Walsh
