Dear Mr. Armour,

I got both your letters- one today and one yesterday. Unfortunately, Miss Kingston is at home with the 'flu so you will have to bear with my handwriting.

As regards the National Council of Civil Liberties I shall go myself to the Annual Meeting. It was very kind of you to ring up and tell them about my going there - I only hope you will be able to attend yourself that night. I agree with you that it would be worth while asking a question on Northern Ireland as they seem to be the only body over here who take an interest in the problem.

I shall write to Mr. Brian Spiller as you suggest and explain to him exactly what I want. Again I am under obligation to you for speaking to him about the "Northman".

In case I do not see you or hear from you between this and Tuesday next I shall attend at Caxton Hall at 8.15 p.m. on February 21st. I hope you can manage to come to introduce me to one or two useful people.

I am sending you Harrison's and Delargy's booklets as I promised.

Yours sincerely,
