

BRIXTON 3320

April 8th. 1939.

Dear Mr. Barry-Walsh,

Thanks very much for your letter.

I am now sending a copy of "Ireland the New Ally". I do not want it back (and as a matter of fact I have another copy), and I hope the Council will be encouraged to start a library of worth-while propaganda books.

I am going to remember your hint that I should call on you at the League office sometime.

Yours sincerely,

Francis Pilkington
