Mr. J. Long,
[REDACTED]

Dear, Jerry,

Your hurried departure from the Council meeting last night deprived you of the honour of seeing yourself being elected to the sub-committee appointed to the Council under item 5 on the Agenda. The resolution passed was as follows :- That this Council appoint a sub-committee consisting of five members from the present Council for the purpose of drafting working rules and regulations for the branches in the London regional area; this constitution to be submitted firstly to a meeting of two delegates from each branch and finally to a general meeting of the Council and four delegates from each branch in the London area. The subcommittee consists of yourself, Kiaran Magee, P.J. Dunphy, and myself with power to coopt a fifth member. Could you ring me up tomorrow morning, Saturday, as I want to arrange a meeting for next Tuesday, July 11th as this date suits everybody? If not, Monday will do or else Friday. Please give me a ring about this. All the best.

Yours sincerely,
