Miss M. Flannery,
[REDACTED]

A Chara,

Thank you for your letter which arrived this morning.

I hope I am not making things awkward for you but I find now that I will not be free on Thursday evening. There^{is}/a meeting of the Highgate branch on that night which I have been asked to attend, but which I understood up to now was being held on the Wednesday night. This leaves me this week, therefore, with only Friday eveining free. I have been in touch with Dr.O'Dwyer and Dr.O'Moore and Dr.O'Dwyer is agreeable to our meeting at his place at 9 o'clock on Friday, April 28th. His address is [REDACTED] and I sincerely hope that you will manage to be present, though I fully realise that you are busy at present, and that I have not helped matters by changing the date of our proposed meeting.

Is mise le meas,
