*EXTEND FRATERNAL GREETINGS TO
THE KENNEDY BROTHERS
MEMORIAL CONCERT*

704 HOLLOWAY ROAD LONDON N.7.

Foreword

Tonight the London Wexfordmens Association continue the Fund Raising to provide a centre of their own in London, welcome you in the language of the Gael with a Cead Mile Failte.

Tonight also the London Wexfordmens Association make history in taking over this vast oval Auditorium in the Royal Albert Hall of Arts and Science for their Annual Memorial Concert to the Late President John F. Kennedy and his brother the Late Senator Bobbie Kennedy.

The profits from tonight's big array of Irelands Royal Performance will help to swell the funds for the centre that will act as a Headquarters for Wexford Emigrants in London and thus honour the illustrious name of the Kennedy Brothers who loved County Wexford and Ireland and who died that we might have a better world to live in. But much more money is required and your donations big or small will always be welcome.

We are thankful to the artistes for this wonderful evening and we are equally thankful too to all you good people who have been our wonderful audience down through the years.

Trusting that you shall enjoy the evenings entertainment and we look forward to your continued support in the future.

Mise le Meas,

Tom Murphy,
Chairman.

Home is where you hang your hat

True or false?

False.

Home for you is Galway, or Dublin, or Tipperary.
Or thereabouts.

And no doubt you've often thought about upping,
and packing, and leaving for home. Right?

Fine!

But when the fateful day arrives, the last thing you'll want to worry about is money. You'll need your money, on hand, the instant you step back on Irish soil.

Here's the simple answer. Open a deposit (savings) account with us. (We're AIB: the only Irish Bank group with branches in England.)

What will you get? For a start you'll get that old-fashioned thing called service. (We give it to all our customers—free.) You'll be in the hands of people who think the same way as you do. And who speak the same language. They'll carry out your instructions to the letter. And from time to time they'll credit your account with a little interest.
So you'll end up with substantially more than you put in. Which is a nice arrangement from your point of view.

What's more, you could have a healthy nest-egg waiting for you when you arrive. So you wouldn't need to hang your hat anywhere but home.

The New Magazine for men

alpha is first
with a man's view of his money

alpha believes that the proper handling and use of his money has now become every man's business, and the crowded pages of alpha will present authenticated articles on sound investments, unit trusts, life assurance, second mortgages, loans, securities, banking facilities, tax allowances, hire purchase agreements - everything a man wants to know about his money and what he can make it do for him.

alpha is first
with a man's view of his
children's world

alpha knows a man's family is his world, but alpha faces the facts about children and the kind of world already in the making for them. alpha writers give frank and informed answers to questions of home discipline, child psychology, education, permissiveness, religion and social responsibility, to help a man in the decisions he has to make for his children while they are unable to decide for themselves.

alpha is first
with a man's view of his property

alpha knows that a man's most important possession is his home. So alpha sees the need for readily available information in depth on every aspect of home ownership; for comparative surveys of the various methods of house purchase, for reliable guidance on buying and selling, conversion grants and property law.

You are sitting in 100 years of history

The Royal Albert Hall has been at the very centre of music and entertainment since it was first opened by Queen Victoria on the 29th March 1871. It is fascinating to think of one hundred years of sound and spectacle in this unique setting and unrivalled atmosphere.

Wagner and Verdi conducted here, Dame Clara Butt and Count John McCormack sang here, Jimmy Wilde and Georges Carpentier boxed here, Kreisler, Rachmaninov and Paderewski played here.

Now we are proud to be preparing the Hall to lead the way for the next 100 years. Will you help?

£500,000 IS NEEDED
for modernisation and redecoration (we have already raised more than half of this sum)

Please put your contribution in one of our collecting boxes, or send it to:—

Centenary Appeal, Royal Albert Hall,
Kensington Gore, LONDON S.W.7

It is not generally realised that the Hall is not state-owned and does not receive any regular subsidy from public funds. It is a registered charity — and hence our appeal to you.

People are going overboard about our new sailing centre

It's the place to go for a sailing holiday backed by the food, atmosphere and facilities that have made Great Southern Hotels famous. There is a full-time sailing instructor at the Centre. You can hire a boat from the fleet of Mirror Dinghies available, at a very reasonable cost. And after a day's sailing—why not take a plunge in the indoor heated swimming pool or relax in a sauna bath?

Make your holiday this year a Great Southern Sailing Holiday. Or pop down for a week-end. To Rosslare. The sunniest spot in Ireland.

For even more details, contact Central Reservations, Great Southern Hotels, Hume House, Ballsbridge, Dublin 4. Tel 683517 (24-hour answering service). And let the wind take you from there!
