

Jo. O. Barry - Wash. D.C.

27. V. 39.

Dear Sir;

I thank you for your letter, and receipt, enclosed, of May 24th inst.

At present I am nursing, on a night duty case, this, of course, makes it impossible to see you, this week, but next week, I may find it convenient to call at the office, as I am changing over unto day duty, or, perhaps you can call on me, but that would be in the evening, and perhaps, not so convenient to you!

Rest assured, what little I can do to help, I shall gladly do, of course, in business, (in private houses) we have not much time to call our own.

I may help, in some way, through my friends, who are, thank God, all truly Irish!

Kindly inform me, when you could arrange a meeting at your office.

Yours sincerely,
M. O'Donnell
