Dear Miss Killin,

When I rang you up earlier in the week I wanted you to speak on Thursday at the Highgate meeting. Fortunately, I got a substitute but I hope you will be kind enough to consider yourself booked as the speaker for the next meeting of that branch.

I note that you wish to donate 10/- to the funds of the League for which on behalf of the Council I wish to thank you. Progress is indeed very slow but due I think mainly to circumstances ^{of} ~~our~~ ~~outside~~ ^{our} ~~control~~ ^{control}.

Kindest regards and thanking you again for your donation.

Yours sincerely,

Organising Secretary.
