T. Sheehy, Esq.,

Dear Tom,

I have arranged for a Mr. Vilisied to come to your meeting on Wednesday, 31st to give the members a talk. It will not be the usual abstract speech about statistics etc but Mr. Vilisied is going to give a personal account of life in the Six Counties under Craigavon and will relate some experiences which befell him. I have known him for some time and have listened to him on many occasions and I feel convinced that the manner in which he relates his experiences is far calculated to impress audiences than abstract figures of unemployment. I will introduce him myself to the branch as he has led a varied life ranging from British pro-Consul in Oran to tea planting in Assam and a few other livelier methods of living. Give me a ring during the week if this arrangement is suitable.

All the best.

Yours sincerely,

Organising Secretary,
