

April 3rd. 1939

Mr. J. O'Connor,

Dear Mr. O'Connor,

Enclosed find the list of names in your district which I mentioned over the 'phone to you today. The best plan, as I said, would be to get four or five people together, at first quite unofficially, who would be prepared not only to join but to do some work for the League, and would form the nucleus of the branch Committee. If you can manage to summon these to a meeting with me some day after Wednesday April 12th, we could discuss and arrange for the inaugural meeting. Quite a lot of preliminary work has first to be done, as you can well imagine, to insure that the inaugural meeting would be fairly well attended.

I leave the matter in your hands until I return from Ireland.

Yours faithfully,

Organising Secretary of the Anti-Partition of Ireland League.

P.S.

I am writing Mr. Andrews to tell him that you will probably get in touch with him.
