

28th June, 1939.

Dear Mr Hickey,

Since writing you yesterday I find that there is a convenient train leaving here Saturday morning 11.48 and due Euston 4.25, returning late Saturday night. This would suit me because I would be back here for Sunday. Let me know if you will be available and where I may find you on arrival.

Yours etc,

T. A. Moran

POST CARD

The address to be written on this side only.

Mr T. J. Hickey,
358 First Avenue House,
High Holborn,
London, W.C. 1.