

April 13th 1939

A. Harekin, Esq.,

A Chara,

Our supply of Councillor Delargy's booklet "The Last Quarrel" has been exhausted and I should be grateful if you would arrange to dispatch two gross of them to me as soon as convenient. They sell very well here and it is not an unusual thing for me to get rid of three dozen at a branch meeting.

I apologise for the delay in forwarding the report of the Conference on March 26th to you but I have been in Ireland for a few days and have only just returned. I hope to forward the report within the next few days. We are going ahead here with the founding of branches, and have now started to launch the appeal for funds which we hope will bring us a good return.

Is mise lea meas,

Organising Secretary of the Anti-Partition of Ireland League.
