

St. Abban's Presbytery,

Blackburn,

SENT TO CAPT HARRISON

Dear Father Mallon,

If ~~it~~ it would be any help to Captain Harrison, I would gladly include the pamphlets with the convening notices to the members of the M. U. I. P. G. B. in September, when the Diocesan lists are supplied to me by the representatives on the various districts. Otherwise, it would be a formidable task to to prepare a special list of names and addresses, running into four figures.

I remember as a stripling listening to the fervid addresses of Captain Harrison, the two Redmonds, Demund Leamy and Rochfort Maguire with others in the vain attempt to win North Kilkenny for Vincent Scully against Pope Hennessy away in 1890, following on the Chief's Divorce Court revelations I think he then was M.P. for Mid-Tipperary. I have followed with the keenest interest over since his many efforts to educate English opinion on the Irish situation; not the least of which has been his periodic appearance in the correspondence columns of the "Manchester Guardian".

I trust I may be able to be of some service to him when issuing the convening literature for our next meeting, when the Bishop of Ferns will be the Guest of honour.

Yours sincerely,

J. Moylan.
